June 21, 2017 Meeting

Presentation: Catch Me If You Can!
*The Many Unsuspected Faces of Fraud in the Workplace

Embezzlement, asset misappropriation, financial statement fraud, bribery, corruption. Crime in the workplace takes its toll on morale and directly hits your organization's bottom line.

We will discuss what constitutes these types of fraud, contributing factors and the red flags to watch for. You'll also get tips on preventing workplace fraud and what to do if you suspect it's going on in your organization.

Since fraud discovery usually comes with disciplinary action, it's essential HR professionals, managers and business owners know how to handle these situations.

Speaker: Melissa Goddard, CFE, PI

Ms. Goddard is a Certified Fraud Examiner and an Oregon Licensed Private Investigator. She is the principal and owner of FACT Financial Investigations, LLC that offers fraud deterrence, detection and investigation services throughout Central Oregon.

Melissa is passionate about her objective to reduce fraud & financial crimes locally and globally. She informs, trains and assists those who have been victimized or who are at risk for being victims of fraud and financial crimes.

Sponsor: Oregon Employment Department, Work Share Program

Oregon Employment Department has enhanced a program that provides an alternative to layoffs. The "Work Share" program, allows part-time unemployment benefits to be paid to employees who opt to have their hours reduced as a part of a plan to keep the workforce intact. Staff members stay employed and keep their benefits, and the business stays ready to accommodate the next boost in the market.
